CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. The Sheep will be exposed in lots according to the numbers in the following Catalogue. The Auctioneers reserve the right to refuse any bid without assigning any reason. The highest offer on each lot will be preferred to the purchase (subject to Article 3).
2. No liability whatever is undertaken by the Auctioneers for the statements appearing in the Catalogue or made at the Sale. The Exposer who supplied such statements is alone responsible for any error or mis-statement. Animals affected with any disease of an infectious nature or animals out of an infected Flock are strictly prohibited from being brought to the premises occupied or used by the Auctioneers at the time and should any such be brought, the Owner or Consignor will be held responsible for all damage or loss occasioned thereby.
3. The Exposers reserve the right to fix a reserve price, and to announce same before the bidding begins or during the time of the bidding or at the conclusion thereof. The right to bid by or on behalf of the Seller in terms of the Sale of Goods Act, 1893, is expressly reserved.
4. Immediately after each purchase is declared, the risk of the animal shall be exclusively with the Buyer, and it is declared that until a settlement shall be made in terms of these Conditions the delivery of the animal shall be suspended. The right of property shall not pass until the price is paid.

5. Immediately after the Sale all lots must be paid for in cash to the Auctioneers. The price being paid, each lot shall be taken away at the Buyer's expense within one day after the Sale thereof. Lots shall only be removable from the Auctioneers' possession on a written order from their clerk, and any lot removed in contravention of this condition may be recovered brevi manu by the Auctioneers.
6. If any Buyers fail to pay for and remove his purchase in compliance with the above conditions, the Auctioneers in their option may either (a) sue the Buyer for the price and interest thereon at the current Bank Rate and for the keep of, and any other expense incurred by them in connection with such purchase, or (b) re-sell the Lot either publicly or privately and recover from the defaulting Buyer the deficiency (if any) attending such re-sale and interest thereon as aforesaid together with the keep and other expenses. In either case, the Auctioneers shall have the right to sue at their own instance without the consent of the Owner or Consignor, and no defence whatever in such action shall be competent to the Buyer who shall have recourse against the Owner or Consignor alone.
7. No undertaking of the Auctioneers or their servants to take charge of any animal after the Sale or to forward it to its destination shall be held to impose upon the Auctioneers any legal obligation or vitiate any of the foregoing conditions.
8. In the event of any consignors guaranteeing rams as stockgetters, intimation of any claims in respect of rams not fulfilling the warranty must be intimated TO THE AUCTIONEER before 20th December following the Sale, accompanied by a Veterinary Surgeon's Certificate. The amount of any claim will be restricted to the purchase price of the ram and will not include any loss of profit or consequent loss or any other claim.
9. The Auctioneers is appointed Judge of the Sale, to whom are hereby submitted all disputes and differences of any kind which may arise at and in relation to the Auction, either between Exposers and Offerers or among Offerers themselves: his decision shall be final and binding on all parties.
10. All rams are warranted correct in mouth and testicles. Claims, which will be subject to a £20 Deposit, should be lodged with the Auctioneers within 30 minutes from the conclusion of sale.
